Call for Papers: Language Issues SIG at CIES 2013 Annual Conference

The Language Issues SIG of the Comparative & International Education Society invites submission of abstracts for individual papers and proposals for panels for the 2013 CIES conference to be held March 10-15, 2013 in New Orleans, LA. Submissions should be related to domestic or international language issues in education and should also speak to the overarching theme of the CIES conference: "Educational Quality: Global Imperatives and Contested Visions."

The final deadline for all proposals is October 26, 2012. Please submit your proposals electronically through the CIES online submission system at http://www.2013.cies.us/index.html; please be sure to select Language Issues (LI) SIG when submitting your proposal. Individual and panel proposals not accepted by the SIG will be forwarded to the General Pool for consideration by the Conference Organizers.

Authors of proposals selected for presentation through the LI SIG at the conference will be required to be LI SIG Members. If you are not currently a member of the LI SIG, you can become one when you pay your annual subscription for CIES. The LI SIG will host a business meeting at the conference where prospective members can learn more about the SIG and its activities.
